Promotion of supervisor 'B' (Tech) in Ordnance Factories

4013. PROF. SAURIN BHATTACHARYA: Will the Minister of DEFENCE be pleased to refer to the answer to the Unstarred Question 2000 given in the Rajya Sabha on 14th May, 1992 and state:

(a) the details of each orders that are in force for the pay-protection of ex-servicemen who joined with or without pension from the forces into the service wih ordnance factories;

(b) what is the number of directly recruited ex-servicemen supervisors 'B' (Tech.) in Ordnance Factories; and

(c) what efforts are being made to promote them at the earliest?

THE MINISTER OF DEFENCE (SHRI SHARAD PAWAR): (a) Summary of order regarding fixation of pay of ex-servicemen is given he Statement. (See below.)

(b) 11 Nos. as on 1.4.90.

(c) A cadre review has been completed recently for improving the promotion prospects of Non-Gazetted staff of Ordnance Factories. This should benefit the re-employed ex-servicemen also along with other similarly placed employees.

Statement

In the case of ex-servicemen personnel, below officer rank, who are entitled for pension, their initial pay on re-employment is fixed at the minimum scale of pay of the re-employed post. Their entire pension is ignored for initial pay fixation. The re-employed pensioner is permitted to draw, in addition to pay as above, any pension sanctioned to him earlier in full.

In the case of ex-servicemen who are retrenched from service and are not entitled to pension and/or service gratuity, on their appointment to Government service, they may be granted advance increments equal to the completed years of service rendered by them on a basic pay equal to or higher than the minimum of the scale attached to the civil post in which they are employed. The pay so arrived at should not, however, exceed the basic pay drawn by them in the Armed Forces.

In the case of ex-combatant clerks and storemen of the Armed Forces, re-employed as LDCs and Storemen in civil posts can opt to be governed by the General Rules outlined below or to have their initial pay fixed in the time-scale of the re-employed posts by giving additional increments corresponding to the number of completed years of service rendered in the Armed Forces.

General Rules :

The basic rule in the case of re-employed pensioner in terms of the orders issued by the Central Government is that they will be allowed to draw pay only in the prescribed scales of pay for the posts in which they are re-employed. No protection of the scales of pay of the posts held by them prior to retirement shall be given.
